Police Station- Chandrapur City

Date of good work- 13-05-2017

Brief of the work done- The murder of the young man- The mastermind is minor friend's.

On 14/04/2017 Seventeen year old Pradhun Suraj Barade left his home to attend MSCIT class as usual. By late night he did not returned home. His father Shri Suraj Vitthal Barade searched him everywhere but of no use. Therefore he lodged complaint at Chandrapur City Police Station on 14/04/2017 . Police registered case U/s 363 IPC. While investigation was on in the crime, Police got no clue about missing child. On 26/04/2017 Police Station Warora passed information to Chandrapur City Police Station that they have found body of unknown young boy at village Dongergaon Khadi. On the receipt of this information City Police reached Warora Police Station. There they confirmed that it was the same missing child they were searching for. Autopsy was done, which revealed that missing child was strangulated to death. Therefore City police added sec. 364,302 IPC to the missing case.

Now it was big challenge before the City Police to trace culprit. Therefore Police enquired all the friends of victim. But nobody lead police to conclusion. During course of investigation Police came to know that one and half year ago victim had altercation with one of his school mate about trivial matter. Victim school mate named Ritesh Chandankhede, Age 16 years was caught by exam invigilation for copying in 10th annual exam. For that invigilation had taken away his answer sheet for half an has as a punishment. Accused felt nervous and he suspected that victim had brought that incident to his friends notice thereby causing him embarrassment. Therefore he decided to take revenge on him.

For that purpose accused took help of one of his friend named Suraj Jambhulkar, Age 20 years. On the day of incident both accused took victim on their motorcycle and they headed toward village Dongergaon Khadi. There accused brought victim at a isolated place. Taking opportunity both accused strangulated victim with their dupatta. When victim fell unconscious they smashed his head with stones to end his life. Both accused in this case took almost precaution not to leave behind any clue. For that on the day of incident they kept their mobile at home. When they took victim with them, they switched victim's mobile off. Also while travelling on motor bike from Chandrapur to place of incident they went by circuitous road to evade CCTV camera's installed on main road at toll naka.

Mastermind of this crime Ritesh Chandankhede is minor studying in class 10th. Another accused is Suraj Jambulkar age 20 years both R/o Nandgaon pade.

Devoid of any evidence, by inquiring meticulously, Police nabbed both accused. Crime is being investigated under guidance of Niyati Thaker Madam, Supdt. Of Police, Chandrapur, Shri.
